The Tradition of John (2)

Chapter One

The Presbyter to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth – and not just I, but all those who know the truth too – ²because of the truth which remains in us, and will be with us forever: ³Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from Godde the Mother and from Jesus Christ, the Mother's Son, in truth and love.

⁴I'm overjoyed that I've found some of your children living in truth, just as we've been instructed by the Mother. ⁵And now I ask you, lady, not like I'm writing to you with a new precept, but one we've had from the beginning: that we love one another. ⁶This is love, that we should live according to her precepts. This is the precept as you've heard from the beginning – you should live in it. ⁷Many deceivers, who don't acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh, have gone out into the world. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. ⁸Watch yourselves so that we don't lose what we've worked for, but that you will receive a full reward. ⁹Whoever goes too far and doesn't remain in the teaching of Christ doesn't have Godde. Whoever remains in the teaching has both the Mother and the Son. ¹⁰If anyone comes to you without bringing this teaching, don't welcome them into your house and don't greet them, ¹¹because whoever greets them participates in their evil deeds.

¹²Though I have much to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you and to talk face to face so that our joy may be complete. ¹³The children of your chosen sister greet you.
