

The Divine Feminine Version (DFV) of the New Testament is made publicly available through the Creative Commons License – Attribution, Noncommercial, Share Alike 3.0 United States. See <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/3.0/us> for full details.

When quotations from the Divine Feminine Version are used, the initials (DFV) may be used at the end of each quotation.

The Revelation of John

Chapter One

The revelation of Jesus Christ, which Godde gave to show her bondservants what must happen soon. He in turn made it known by sending his angel to his bondservant, John, ²who testified to Godde's message and to the testimony of Jesus Christ – as much as he saw. ³Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear and keep what's written in it, because the time is near.

⁴From John to the seven communities in Asia: Grace to you and peace from the one who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits before her throne, ⁵and from Jesus Christ, the trustworthy witness, the firstborn from the dead, the one above the rulers of the earth.

To the one who loves us and freed us from our wrongdoing by his blood, ⁶and made us a nation of priests serving his Godde and Mother; to whom be the glory and the power forever and ever! Amen.

⁷"Look, he's coming with the clouds,"
and "every eye will see him, even those who pierced him."
All the tribes of the earth "will mourn for him."

Yes! Amen.

⁸"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the all-powerful Lady Godde, "who is, and who was, and who is to come!"

⁹I, John, your brother and partner with you in oppression, in Godde's reign, and in patience in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of Godde's message and the testimony of Jesus. ¹⁰I was in the Spirit on the Lady's day when I heard behind me a voice as loud as a trumpet. ¹¹It said, "Write down what you see on a scroll and send it to the seven communities: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

¹²I turned to see who had spoken to me. When I turned, I saw seven golden menorahs, ¹³and among the menorahs was someone like a Son of Woman dressed in a long robe with a golden sash around his chest. ¹⁴His head and hair were as white as white wool or snow and his eyes were like flaming fire. ¹⁵His feet were like burnished bronze refined in a furnace and his voice was like the sound of roaring waters. ¹⁶He held seven stars in his right hand, and a sharp two-edged sword came out of his mouth. His face was shining like the sun at its brightest.

¹⁷When I saw him, I fell at his feet like I was dead. He laid his right hand on me.

"Don't be afraid," he said. "I am the first and the last. ¹⁸I am the living one. I was dead, but look, I'm alive forever! Now I have Death's keys to Hades. ¹⁹So write down what you've seen, what is, and what's about to happen afterward. ²⁰As for the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden menorahs: The seven stars are the angels of the seven communities, and the seven menorahs are the seven communities.

Chapter Two

"To the angel of the community in Ephesus write:

"These are the words of the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand and moves among the seven golden menorahs. ²I know your deeds, your toil, and your patience. I know you can't stand evil, and have examined those who call themselves apostles but really aren't, and found them to be liars. ³You have patience and have endured for my sake, and haven't given up. ⁴But I hold this against you, that you left your first love. ⁵So remember how far you've fallen! Change, and do what you used to do at first. Otherwise, I'll come to you and remove your menorah from its place – unless you change. ⁶But you have this in your favor: You hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I hate too. ⁷If anyone has an ear, listen to what the Spirit says to the communities! Whoever overcomes will eat from the tree of life in Godde's paradise.

⁸"To the angel of the community in Smyrna write:

"These are the words of the first and the last, who was dead but has come to life. ⁹I know your oppression and your poverty (but you're really rich) and the slander of those who claim to be Jews but aren't – they're a synagogue of the Satan. ¹⁰Don't be afraid of what you're about to suffer. Look, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison to test you, and you'll be oppressed for ten days. Be trustworthy even to the point of death, and I'll give you the crown of life. ¹¹If anyone has an ear, listen to what the Spirit says to the communities! The one who overcomes won't be harmed by the second death.

¹²"To the angel of the community in Pergamum write:

"These are the words of the one who has the sharp two-edged sword. ¹³I know where you live, where the Satan has its throne. You keep my name and didn't deny my trust even when Antipas my trustworthy witness was killed among you, where the Satan lives. ¹⁴But I hold a few things against you, because there are some among you who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to trip up the children of Israel so that they would eat food sacrificed to idols and be promiscuous. ¹⁵So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans likewise. ¹⁶So change, or else I'll come to you soon and wage war against them with the sword of my mouth. ¹⁷If anyone has an ear, listen to what the Spirit says to the communities! I'll give the hidden manna to the one who overcomes, and I'll give them a white stone engraved with a new name known only to the one who receives it.

¹⁸"To the angel of the community in Thyatira write:

"These are the words of Godde's Son, who has eyes like flaming fire and feet like burnished bronze. ¹⁹I know your deeds and your love, trust, ministry, and patience, and that your latest deeds are greater than at first. ²⁰But I hold this against you, that you accept that woman, Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and deceives my bondservants to be promiscuous and to eat food sacrificed to idols. ²¹I gave her time to change, but she doesn't want to change her promiscuous ways. ²²Look, I'll throw her onto a bed of great oppression, and those who are unfaithful with her, unless they change from her deeds. ²³I'll kill her children with Death, and all the communities will know that I am the one who searches minds and hearts. I'll repay each of you according to your deeds. ²⁴But I say to the rest of you in Thyatira who don't hold her teaching, who haven't learned what they call 'the deep things of the Satan'; I'm not laying any other burden on you ²⁵except to hold onto what you already have until I come. ²⁶To the one who overcomes and keeps my deeds to the end:

'I'll give power over the Gentiles.'

²⁷They'll shepherd them with an iron staff, shattering them like clay vessels';

just as I've received authority from my Mother too, ²⁸and I'll give them the morning star. ²⁹If anyone has an ear, listen to what the Spirit says to the communities!

Chapter Three

"To the angel of the community in Sardis write:

"These are the words of the one who has Godde's seven spirits and the seven stars: I know your deeds, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you're really dead. ²Wake up and build up what you have left before it dies altogether, because I haven't found your deeds to be finished before my Godde. ³So remember what you've received and heard; keep it and change. If you don't wake up, I'll come like a thief, and you won't know when I'll come to you. ⁴Yet you have a few people in Sardis who didn't defile their clothes. They'll accompany me in white, because they're worthy. ⁵The one who overcomes will be dressed in white clothes like them. I'll never blot out their name from the book of life, but will acknowledge their name before my Mother and her angels. ⁶If anyone has an ear, listen to what the Spirit says to the communities.

⁷"To the angel of the community in Philadelphia write:

"These are the words of the one who is holy, the one who is true:

"Who has the key of Bathsheba and David,
who opens and no one can shut,
and who shuts and no one can open."

⁸"I know your deeds. Look, I've opened a door for you which no one can shut because you have some strength, kept my word, and didn't deny my name. ⁹Look, as for the synagogue of the Satan – those who claim to be Jews but aren't, because they're lying – I'll make them come, bow before your feet, and know that I've loved you. ¹⁰Because you've kept my instruction to endure, I'll also keep you from the hour of trial which is coming on the whole world to test everyone living on earth. ¹¹I'm coming quickly! Hold onto what you have so that no one can take your crown. ¹²The one who overcomes, I'll make a pillar in the temple of my Godde and they'll never have to leave it. I'll write on them the name of my Godde and the name of my Godde's city, the new Jerusalem descending out of heaven from my Godde, as well as my own new name. ¹³If anyone has an ear, listen to what the Spirit says to the communities.

¹⁴"To the angel of the community in Laodicea write:

"These are the words of the Amen, the trustworthy and true witness, the head of Godde's creation.

¹⁵I know your deeds, that you're neither cold nor hot. I wish you were one or the other! ¹⁶So because you're lukewarm – neither hot nor cold – I'll vomit you out of my mouth. ¹⁷You say, 'I'm rich and well off, and don't need anything.' But you don't know that you're the one who's miserable, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked. ¹⁸So I advise you to buy from me gold refined by fire so you can become rich; and white clothes to put on so your shameful nakedness will be covered; and cream to anoint your eyes so you can see. ¹⁹I warn and teach everyone I love, so be zealous and change! ²⁰Look, I'm standing here, knocking on the door. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I'll come in and eat with them, and they with me. ²¹To the one who overcomes, I'll give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I also overcame and sat down with my Mother on her throne. ²²If anyone has an ear, listen to what the Spirit says to the communities."

Chapter Four

After this I saw a door standing open in heaven! The first voice I had heard, the one as loud as a trumpet, spoke to me. "Come up here," it said, "and I'll show you what must happen after this."

²Immediately I was in the Spirit! I saw a throne set up in heaven, and someone sitting on the throne ³who looked like jasper and carnelian. Encircling the throne was a rainbow that sparkled like an emerald. ⁴The throne was surrounded by twenty-four thrones, on which were seated twenty-four presbyters dressed in white clothes with golden crowns on their heads. ⁵From the throne came bolts of lightning, rumblings, and thunderclaps. Seven flaming torches blazed before the throne; they're Godde's seven spirits. ⁶In front of the throne was something like a sea of glass, clear as crystal.

Around the throne on each side were four living beings covered with eyes in front and in back. ⁷The first living being was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a human-like face, and the fourth was like a flying eagle. ⁸Each of the four living beings had six wings and was covered with eyes all over. Day and night they never stop singing:

“Holy, holy, holy is the all-powerful Lady Godde who was, and who is, and who is to come!”

⁹Whenever the living beings give glory, honor, and thanks to the one sitting on the throne, the one who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰the twenty-four presbyters fall down before the one sitting on the throne and bow to the one who lives forever and ever. They throw their crowns before the throne and sing:

¹¹“Worthy are you, our Lady and Godde, to receive the glory, the honor, and the power,
because you created all things,
and by your will they existed and were created!”

Chapter Five

Then I saw in the right hand of the one sitting on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides, sealed up with seven seals. ²I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?” ³No one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll, or even to look inside it. ⁴I wept bitterly, because no one could be found who was worthy to open the scroll, or even to look inside it. ⁵One of the presbyters said to me, “Don’t weep. Look, the lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of Bathsheba and David, has overcome! He can open the scroll and its seven seals.”

⁶Then I saw among the throne and the four living beings and presbyters a lamb standing as if it had been slain. It had seven horns and seven eyes, which are Godde’s seven spirits sent out into all the earth. ⁷Then he came and took the scroll from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne. ⁸When he had taken the scroll, the four living beings and the twenty-four presbyters fell down before the lamb. Each one had a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the holy ones. ⁹They sang a new song:

“You’re worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals,
because you were slain
and with your blood you bought us for Godde from every tribe, language, people, and nation ¹⁰and made them a nation of priests serving our Godde, and they’ll reign on the earth.”

¹¹Then I looked and heard the voices of countless angels around the throne, the living beings, and the presbyters. ¹²They sang in a loud voice:

“Worthy is the lamb that was slain to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and praise!”

¹³Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that’s in them, singing:

“To the one sitting on the throne and to the lamb be praise and honor and glory and power forever and ever!”

¹⁴The four living beings said, “Amen!” And the presbyters fell and bowed down.

Chapter Six

I saw the lamb open one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living beings call out in a voice like thunder, “Come!” ²I looked and saw a white horse. Its rider carried a bow. A crown was given to it, and it rode out as a conqueror to conquer.

³When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living being call out, “Come!” ⁴Another horse emerged, red as fire. Its rider was allowed to take peace from the earth, so that people would slay each other. A great sword was given to it.

⁵When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living being call out, “Come!” And I saw a black horse. Its rider held a pair of scales in its hand. ⁶I heard what sounded like a voice among the four living beings. “A quart of wheat for a denarius,” it said, “and three quarts of barley for a denarius! Don’t damage the oil and the wine!”

⁷When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living being call out, “Come!” ⁸I looked and saw a pale horse. Its rider was named Death, and Hades followed it. They were given power over a quarter of the earth to kill by sword, famine, and disease, and by the wild animals of the earth.

⁹When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of Godde’s message and because of their testimony. ¹⁰They cried out in a loud voice. “How long, holy and true Master,” they asked, “until you judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?” ¹¹A white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest a little longer, until the full number of the bondservants, their sisters and brothers, were killed as they had been.

¹²When he opened the sixth seal I saw a great earthquake. The sun turned black as sackcloth, the whole moon turned blood red, ¹³and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, like unripe figs dropping from a fig tree when shaken by a great wind. ¹⁴Heaven split apart like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved from its place. ¹⁵The rulers of the earth, the courtiers, the military commanders, those who were rich, those who were mighty, and every bondservant and free person hid themselves in the caves and under the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶They called out to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one sitting on the throne, and from the lamb’s wrath, ¹⁷because the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand it?”

Chapter Seven

After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind could blow on earth or on the sea or on any tree. ²Then I saw another angel coming up from the east with the seal of the living Godde. It cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were empowered to harm the earth and the sea. ³“Don’t harm the earth,” it said, “or the sea or the trees, until we’ve put a seal on the foreheads of our Godde’s bondservants!” ⁴I heard the number of those who were sealed, 144,000, from every tribe of the children of Israel:

⁵From the tribe of Judah 12,000 were sealed,
from the tribe of Reuben 12,000,
from the tribe of Gad 12,000, ⁶from the tribe of Asher 12,000,
from the tribe of Naphtali 12,000,

from the tribe of Manasseh 12,000, 7from the tribe of Simeon 12,000,
from the tribe of Levi 12,000,
from the tribe of Issachar 12,000, 8from the tribe of Zebulun 12,000,
from the tribe of Joseph 12,000,
and from the tribe of Benjamin 12,000 were sealed.

9After this I looked and saw a large crowd that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people, and language. They stood before the throne and the lamb dressed in white robes and carrying palm branches in their hands. 10They cried out in a loud voice:

“Life springs from our Godde who sits on the throne,
and from the lamb!”

11All the angels stood around the throne, the presbyters, and the four living beings. They fell on their faces before the throne and bowed to Godde, 12singing:

“Amen!
Praise, glory,
wisdom, thanksgiving,
honor, power, and might be to our Godde forever and ever! Amen.”

13One of the presbyters spoke to me. “Who are these people wearing white robes,” she asked, “and where did they come from?”

14“My Lady,” I answered, “you know.”

“These are the people who’ve gone through the great oppression,” she said. “They’ve washed their robes and bleached them in the lamb’s blood.

15That’s why they’re before the throne of Godde;
they serve her day and night in her temple.
The one sitting on the throne will spread her tent over them.

16They’ll never be hungry or thirsty again.

The sun won’t beat down on them,
nor any scorching heat,

17because the lamb who is in the middle of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of living water.

And Godde will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Chapter Eight

When he opened the seventh seal, heaven fell silent for about half an hour. 2I saw the seven angels who stand before Godde, and seven trumpets were given to them.

3Another angel, who had a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. It was given much incense to offer with the prayers of all the holy ones on the golden altar before the throne. 4The smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of the holy ones, rose before Godde from the angel’s hand. 5The angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. There were thunderclaps, rumblings, and bolts of lightning followed by an earthquake!

⁶The seven angels with the seven trumpets prepared to blow them.

⁷The first trumpeted. Hail and fire, mixed with blood, were thrown to the earth. A third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

⁸The second angel trumpeted, and something like a great burning mountain was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned into blood, ⁹a third of the creatures that lived in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰The third angel trumpeted, and a great star fell from heaven, blazing like a torch. It fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. ¹¹The name of the star is called "Bitterness." A third of the water turned bitter. Many people died from the water because it had turned bitter.

¹²The fourth angel trumpeted, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars; so that a third of them would be darkened. There was no light for a third of the day and a third of the night.

¹³Then I looked and heard an eagle flying in midair cry out in a loud voice, "Sorrow! Sorrow! Sorrow to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining trumpet blasts of the three angels who are about to trumpet!"

Chapter Nine

The fifth angel trumpeted, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to the earth. It was given the key to the pit leading down to the abyss. ²It opened the pit to the abyss, and smoke rose from the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. The sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit. ³Out of the smoke locusts swarmed over the earth. They were given power like the scorpions of the earth. ⁴They were told not to hurt the grass of the earth or any green thing or any tree, but only those people who don't have Godde's seal on their foreheads. ⁵They weren't given power to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like that inflicted by a scorpion when it strikes. ⁶In those days people will seek Death, but won't find it by any means. They'll want to die, but Death will flee from them.

⁷The locusts looked like horses prepared for war. On their heads they wore what looked like golden crowns, and their faces looked like people's faces. ⁸They had long hair and teeth like lions. ⁹Their scales were like breastplates of iron, and their buzzing wings sounded like many horse-drawn chariots rushing to war. ¹⁰They had tails with stingers, like scorpions, and their tails were able to hurt people for five months. ¹¹Their ruler was the angel of the abyss whose Hebrew name is "Destruction" and whose Greek name is "Destroyer."

¹²The first sorrow is over. Look, there are still two sorrows coming after this.

¹³The sixth angel trumpeted. I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before Godde. ¹⁴It said to the sixth angel with a trumpet, "Free the four angels who are imprisoned at the great river, the Euphrates!"

¹⁵The four angels who had been kept ready for that very hour and day and month and year were then freed to kill a third of humankind. ¹⁶Two hundred million mounted troops rode in their armies! I heard the number. ¹⁷This is how I saw the horses in my vision: Their riders wore breastplates red as fire, blue as sapphire, and yellow as sulfur. The heads of the horses were like lions' heads, and they breathed fire and smoke and sulfur. ¹⁸A third of humankind was killed by the three plagues of fire and smoke and sulfur that they breathed. ¹⁹The horses had powerful mouths and tails, because their tails were like serpents with heads that inflict harm.

²⁰The rest of humankind who weren't killed by these plagues didn't change from their practice of bowing to demons and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood, which can't see, hear, or move.

²¹They didn't change from their murders, drug abuse, promiscuity, or stealing.

Chapter Ten

I saw descending from heaven a mighty angel robed in a cloud and wearing a rainbow on its head. Its face was like the sun and its feet like fiery pillars. ²It held a small unrolled scroll in its hand. It placed its right foot on the sea and its left on the land. ³It cried out in a loud voice, like a lion roaring. When it cried out, the seven thunderclaps roared their response. ⁴When the seven thunderclaps responded, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up what the seven thunderclaps said; don't write it down!"

⁵The angel I saw standing on the sea and the land

raised its right hand to heaven

⁶and swore by the one who lives forever and ever

"who created heaven and everything in it,

the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it."

"There'll be no more delay!" the angel said. ⁷"But when the seventh angel is about to trumpet, Godde's mystery will be finished, just as she announced to her bondservants, the prophets."

⁸Then the voice I had heard from heaven spoke with me again. "Go," it said, "and take the unrolled scroll from the hand of the angel standing on the sea and the land."

⁹So I went to the angel and told it to give me the small scroll.

"Take it," the angel said, "and eat it. It'll be sour in your stomach, but it'll taste 'as sweet as honey' in your mouth."

¹⁰I took the small scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. It really was "as sweet as honey in my mouth," but when I had eaten it, it turned sour in my stomach.

¹¹"You must prophesy again," they told me, "about many peoples, nations, languages, and rulers."

Chapter Eleven

I was given a reed like a staff. "Rise," I was told, "measure Godde's temple, the altar, and those who bow down in it. ²Ignore the outer court of the temple and don't measure it, because that's been given to the Gentiles. They'll trample on the holy city for forty-two months. ³I'll send my two witnesses wearing sackcloth, and they'll prophesy 1,260 days."

⁴They're "the two olive trees" and the two menorahs "that stand before the Lady of the earth." ⁵If anyone tries to hurt them, they breathe fire from their mouths and consume their enemies. That's how anyone who tries to hurt them must be killed. ⁶They have the power to shut heaven so that it won't rain during the time of their prophesying. They have power to turn the waters into blood and to strike the earth with any plague as often as they want.

⁷When they've finished their testimony, the monster rising from the abyss will wage war on them, overcome them, and kill them. ⁸Their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was crucified too. ⁹For three and-a-half days the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations will gawk at their dead bodies and won't let them be buried. ¹⁰The inhabitants of the earth will gloat over them and rejoice. They'll exchange gifts because these two prophets had tormented them.

¹¹But after those three and-a-half days, Godde's life-giving Spirit entered them and they stood on their feet. Everyone who saw them was terrified. ¹²They heard a loud voice from heaven tell them, "Come up here!"

They ascended into heaven in a cloud while their enemies watched. ¹³At that moment there was a great earthquake and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake. The survivors were terrified and praised the Godde of heaven.

¹⁴The second sorrow is over. Look, the third sorrow is coming soon!

¹⁵The seventh angel trumpeted, and loud voices in heaven followed:

“The world’s empire has become the reign of our Lady and of her Christ,
who will reign forever and ever!”

¹⁶The twenty-four presbyters sitting on their thrones before Godde fell on their faces and bowed to Godde, ¹⁷singing:

“We give you thanks, all-powerful Lady Godde, who is and who was,
because you have assumed your great power and reigned!

¹⁸The Gentiles were angry, and your punishment came,
and the time for judging the dead and rewarding your bondservants the prophets, as well as the holy ones and all who respect your name,
both small and great;
and for destroying those who destroy the earth.”

¹⁹Godde’s temple in heaven was opened, and within her temple the ark of her covenant was seen. There were bolts of lightning, rumblings, thunderclaps, an earthquake, and great hail!

Chapter Twelve

A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman dressed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head. ²She was pregnant and crying out in pains of childbirth, agonizing to give birth. ³Then another sign was seen in heaven: a great red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns on its heads. ⁴Its tail dragged a third of the stars from heaven and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman about to give birth in order to devour her child as soon as it was born. ⁵She gave birth to a son, a male child who will shepherd all the Gentiles with an iron staff. Her child was snatched up to Godde and to her throne. ⁶The woman fled into the wilderness to a place prepared by Godde where she could be fed for 1,260 days.

⁷Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and the other angels waged war against the dragon. The dragon and its angels fought back, ⁸but they weren’t strong enough and there wasn’t any place for them in heaven any longer. ⁹The great dragon was thrown down, the ancient serpent called the devil and the Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. It was thrown down to the earth, and its angels with it. ¹⁰I heard a loud voice in heaven say:

“Now have come the life, the power,
and the reign of our Godde,
and the power of her Christ;
because the accuser of our sisters and brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our Godde day and night.

¹¹They overcame it because of the lamb’s blood and by the word of their testimony.

They didn't love their life, even to the point of death.
¹²So rejoice, you heavens
and you who live in them!
But sorrow to the earth and the sea,
because the devil has descended to you with great rage,
knowing that it has a short time!"

¹³When the dragon saw that it had been thrown down to the earth, it harassed the woman who gave birth to the male child. ¹⁴She was given the two wings of the great eagle so that she could fly into the wilderness to her place where she could be fed for three and-a-half years, away from the serpent. ¹⁵From its mouth the serpent spewed water like a river after the woman, so that she might be carried away by the flood. ¹⁶But the earth helped the woman by opening her mouth and swallowing up the river which the dragon spewed out of its mouth. ¹⁷The dragon was furious with the woman and went off to wage war on the rest of her offspring, those who keep Godde's precepts and hold the testimony of Jesus. ¹⁸It stood on the sand of the beach.

Chapter Thirteen

Then I saw a monster rising from the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads. It had ten crowns on its horns and slanderous names on its heads. ²The monster I saw looked like a leopard, but its feet were like a bear's and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. The dragon gave the monster its power, its throne, and great authority. ³One of its heads looked like it had been fatally wounded, but its fatal wound was healed. The whole earth was amazed and followed the monster. ⁴They bowed to it, and they bowed to the dragon because it gave authority to the monster. "Who is like the monster?" they asked. "Who can wage war against it?"

⁵The monster was given a mouth to say grandiose and slanderous things. It was given power for forty-two months. ⁶It opened its mouth to slander Godde, her name, her dwelling, and all who dwell in heaven. ⁷It was allowed to wage war on the holy ones and to overcome them. It was given power over every tribe, people, language, and nation. ⁸All the inhabitants of the earth will bow to it, everyone whose name hasn't been recorded from the beginning of the world in the book of life of the lamb who's been slain.

⁹If anyone has an ear, listen up!

¹⁰If anyone is to go into captivity,
into captivity they'll go.
If anyone kills with a sword,
with a sword they'll be killed.

This calls for the endurance and trust of the holy ones.

¹¹Then I saw another monster rising from the earth. It had two horns like a lamb, but it spoke like a dragon. ¹²It exercised all the power of the first monster on its behalf. It forced the earth and its inhabitants to bow to the first monster, whose fatal wound had been healed. ¹³It performed great signs, even making fire descend from heaven to earth in full view of everyone. ¹⁴Because of the signs it was empowered to perform on behalf of the first monster, it deceived the inhabitants of the earth, telling them to make an image of the monster who had been wounded by the sword and yet lived. ¹⁵It was allowed to breathe life into the image of the monster so that the image could talk and force everyone who wouldn't bow to the image to be killed. ¹⁶It forced everyone, great and small, rich and poor, free and bondservant, to be marked on their right hands or on their foreheads, ¹⁷so that no one could buy or sell unless they had that mark, which was the name of the monster or the number of its name. ¹⁸This calls for wisdom. Whoever understands should calculate the monster's number, because it's a human number. Its number is six hundred sixty-six.

Chapter Fourteen

Then I looked and saw the lamb standing on Mount Zion with 144,000 who had his name and his Mother's name written on their foreheads. ²I heard a voice from heaven like the sound of roaring waters and the bang of a great thunderclap. The voice I heard was like the sound of harpists playing their harps. ³They sang a new song before the throne and the four living beings and the presbyters. No one could learn the song except the 144,000, those who had been bought from the earth. ⁴They're the ones who haven't debased themselves, because they're chaste. They're the ones who follow the lamb wherever he goes. They were bought from humankind as the first fruits to Godde and the lamb. ⁵They've never been known to lie because they're without fault.

⁶Then I saw another angel flying in midair with an eternal message of good news to announce to the inhabitants of the earth, to every nation, tribe, language, and people. ⁷"Respect the Lady," it said in a loud voice, "and give her glory, because the hour of her judgment has come. Bow to the one who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!"

⁸Another angel, a second one, followed. "Fallen!" it said. "Fallen is the great Babylon, who made all the Gentiles drink of the wine of its idolatrous rage!"

⁹Another angel, a third one, followed them. "If anyone bows to the monster and its image," it said in a loud voice, "and receives a mark on their forehead or on their hand, ¹⁰they'll also drink the undiluted wine of Godde's rage from the cup of her punishment. They'll be tormented with fire and sulfur before the holy angels and the lamb, ¹¹and the smoke of their torment will rise forever and ever. There will be no rest day or night for those who bow to the monster and its image or receives the mark of its name."

¹²This calls for the endurance of the holy ones, those who keep the precepts of Godde and the trust of Jesus.

¹³Then I heard the voice from heaven say, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lady from now on.'"

"Yes," said the Spirit, "so that they will rest from their labors, because their deeds follow them."

¹⁴Then I looked and saw a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud one who looked like a Son of Woman wearing a golden crown on its head and holding a sharp sickle in its hand. ¹⁵Another angel emerged from the temple, crying out to the one sitting on the cloud. "Use your sickle and reap," it said in a loud voice, "because it's time to reap. The harvest of the earth is ripe!"

¹⁶The one sitting on the cloud swung its sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

¹⁷Another angel emerged from the temple in heaven. It had a sharp sickle too. ¹⁸Then another angel, who had power over fire, came from the altar and called to the one with the sharp sickle. "Use your sharp sickle to gather the clusters from the earth's vine," it called in a loud voice, "because its grapes are ripe!"

¹⁹The angel swung its sickle over the earth and gathered its vintage, then threw it into the great winepress of Godde's rage. ²⁰The winepress was trampled outside the city and blood flowed from it, rising as high as the horses' bridles for about two hundred miles.

Chapter Fifteen

Then I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels with the last seven plagues, because with them Godde's rage is finished.

²I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire. Those who had overcome the monster, its image, and the number of its name stood on the sea of glass with Godde's harps. ³They sang the song of Moses, the bondservant of Godde, and the song of the lamb:

"Great and marvelous are your deeds,
all-powerful Lady Godde!
Just and true are your ways,
Queen of the nations.
⁴Who wouldn't respect you, Lady,
and glorify your name?
Because only you are holy.
For all the Gentiles will come and bow before you,
because your justice has been revealed."

⁵After this I saw the temple of the testimony's dwelling open in heaven. ⁶The seven angels with the seven plagues emerged from the temple wearing pure, bright linen, with golden sashes around their breasts.

⁷One of the four living beings gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the rage of Godde, who lives forever and ever. ⁸The temple was filled with smoke from Godde's glory and power. No one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

Chapter Sixteen

Then I heard a loud voice from the temple speaking to the seven angels. "Go," it said, "and pour out the seven bowls of Godde's rage on the earth!"

²The first went off and poured out its bowl on the earth. Foul, painful sores broke out on those who had the mark of the monster and bowed to its image.

³The second poured out its bowl into the sea. It turned into blood like that of a corpse. Everything living in the sea died.

⁴The third poured out its bowl into the rivers and springs of water. They turned into blood. ⁵I heard the angel of the waters say:

"You are just, who are and who were, the Holy One,
because you've judged these things.
⁶Because they poured out the blood of the holy ones and prophets,
You've given them blood to drink.
It's what they deserve!"

⁷I heard the altar say:

"Yes, all-powerful Lady Godde, true and just are your judgments!"

⁸The fourth angel poured out its bowl on the sun. It was allowed to scorch people with fire. ⁹People were scorched with great heat, and they slandered the name of Godde who had power over these plagues. But they didn't change and give her glory.

¹⁰The fifth poured out its bowl on the throne of the monster. Its empire was plunged into darkness. People bit their tongues because of the pain ¹¹and slandered the Godde of heaven because of their pains and sores. But they didn't change their deeds.

¹²The sixth poured out its bowl on the great river, the Euphrates. It dried up to prepare the way for the rulers from the east. ¹³Then I saw three corrupting spirits that looked like frogs coming out of the mouths of the dragon, the monster, and the false prophet. ¹⁴They're demonic spirits that perform signs, going abroad to the rulers of the whole world to gather them together for the war of that great day of the all-powerful Godde.

¹⁵"Look, I'm coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who stays awake and keeps their clothes on so that they don't go around naked shamefully exposed!"

¹⁶They gathered them together at the place called "the hill of Megiddo" in Hebrew.

¹⁷The seventh angel poured out its bowl into the air. A loud voice from the throne in the temple called out, "It's done!"

¹⁸There were bolts of lightning, rumblings, thunderclaps, and a great earthquake, the likes of which have not happened since humans have lived on earth, so great an earthquake was it and so mighty! ¹⁹The great city split into three parts and the cities of the Gentiles collapsed. Godde remembered the great Babylon and gave it the cup of the wine of her punishing rage. ²⁰Every island fled and the mountains weren't to be found. ²¹Great hundred-pound hailstones rained from heaven on people, and they slandered Godde because of the plague of hail because it was so severe.

Chapter Seventeen

Then one of the seven angels with the seven bowls came and spoke with me. "Come here," it said. "I'll show you the judgment of the great idolater sitting on many waters, ²with whom the earth's rulers were promiscuous and with whose idolatrous wine the inhabitants of the earth got drunk." ³It carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw someone riding a scarlet-colored monster full of sacrilegious names. It had seven heads and ten horns. ⁴The rider was dressed in purple and scarlet, glittering with gold, precious stones, and pearls, holding a golden cup full of outrages and the impurities of the earth's idolatry. ⁵On its forehead was written a name, which is a mystery:

"THE GREAT BABYLON,
THE CAUSE OF ALL IDOLATRY
AND EARTH'S OUTRAGES."

⁶I saw the idolater drunk with the blood of the holy ones and the martyrs of Jesus.

I was completely amazed when I saw it. ⁷"Why are you amazed?" the angel asked me. "I'll explain to you the mystery of the rider and of its mount, the monster with seven heads and ten horns. ⁸The monster you saw was, and is not, and is about to rise from the abyss and go to its destruction. The inhabitants of the earth, whose names haven't been recorded in the book of life from the beginning of the world, will be amazed when they see that the monster was, and is not, and yet will come. ⁹This calls for a mind with wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the rider sits. They're seven rulers too. ¹⁰Five have fallen, one is, and the other hasn't yet come. When he comes, he'll need to remain a little while. ¹¹The monster that was, and is not, is an eighth, but belongs to the seven, and goes to destruction. ¹²The ten horns you saw are ten rulers who haven't yet received an empire, but will receive power as rulers along with the monster for one hour. ¹³They're united in giving their strength and power to the monster. ¹⁴They'll war against the lamb, but the lamb will overcome them because he's Lord of ladies and lords and Ruler of rulers, and those with him will be called and chosen and trustworthy."

¹⁵"The waters you saw," it said, "where the idolater sits, are peoples, crowds, nations, and languages. ¹⁶The monster and ten horns you saw will hate the idolater, and will devastate it, strip it, eat its flesh, and burn it up with fire. ¹⁷Godde put in their hearts the will to do what she had in mind, to be united in giving their empire to the monster until Godde's words are fulfilled. ¹⁸The idolater you saw is the great city which reigns over the earth's rulers."

Chapter Eighteen

After this I saw another angel descending from heaven with great power, and the earth was lit up by its glory. ²It cried out in a mighty voice:

"Fallen! Fallen is the great Babylon!
It's become a habitat for demons,
a haunt for every corrupting spirit and every foul bird
and every foul and hateful animal!
³Because all the Gentiles have drunk of the wine of its idolatrous rage,
the rulers of the earth were promiscuous with it, and the merchants of the earth got rich from the power of its luxury!"

⁴Then I heard another voice from heaven say:

"Abandon the idolater, my people,
so that you won't share in its wrongdoings and won't receive its plagues, ⁵because its wrongdoings have piled up to heaven and Godde has remembered its injustice.
⁶Give back to it just as it gave,
and repay it double for its deeds.
Mix a double for it in its own cup!
⁷Give it as much torment and grief
as it gave itself glory and luxury, because it says to itself, 'I'm a ruler
and don't need anything,
and will never come to grief!'
⁸So in one day its plagues will come:
death, grief, and famine;
and it'll be burned up with fire,
because mighty is the Lady Godde who's judged it."

⁹The rulers of the earth who were promiscuous and lived with it luxuriously will weep and mourn over it when they see the smoke of its burning, ¹⁰standing far off because they're afraid of its torment. They'll say:

"Sorrow! Sorrow to the great city, Babylon, the mighty city!"

Because your judgment has come in one hour.”

¹¹The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over it, because no one buys their cargo anymore; ¹²cargo of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, every kind of scented wood, every kind of ivory, every kind of precious wood, and of copper, iron, and marble; ¹³cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle and sheep, horses, chariots, and people’s bodies and souls.

¹⁴“The fruit you desired
has left you,
and all your luxurious and splendid things
have been destroyed,
never to be found again!”

¹⁵The merchants who were enriched by these things will stand far off because they’re afraid of its torment. They’ll weep and mourn ¹⁶and cry out:

“Sorrow! Sorrow to the great city which was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet,
and glittering with gold
and precious stones and pearls!”

¹⁷Because in an hour such great wealth was devastated.

All sea captains, seafarers, sailors, and everyone who earns their living from the sea stood far off ¹⁸and cried out as they saw the smoke of it burning. “Was there ever anything like this great city?” they asked.

¹⁹They threw dust on their heads, wept and mourned, and cried out:

“Sorrow! Sorrow to the great city
Where all who had their ships on the sea were enriched by its great wealth!”

Because in an hour it was devastated.

²⁰“Rejoice over it, O heaven,
and holy ones, apostles, and prophets,
because Godde has judged it for you!”

²¹Then a mighty angel lifted a stone like a great millstone, threw it into the sea, and said:

“With such violence will the great city Babylon be thrown down,
never to be found again!

²²The music of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters
will never be heard in you again.
No artisan of any trade will ever be found in you again.

The sound of a mill
will never be heard in you again.
²³The light of a lamp will never shine in you again.
The voices of brides and grooms
will never be heard in you again
because your merchants were the courtiers of the earth and all the Gentiles were deceived by your drugs!
²⁴In the city was found the blood of prophets and holy ones,
and all who've been slain on the earth."

Chapter Nineteen

After this I heard something like a loud voice of a large crowd in heaven, singing:

"Hallelujah!
Life, glory, and power belong to our Godde ²because her judgments are true and just!
She has judged the great idolater who corrupted the earth with its promiscuity and has avenged on it the blood of her bondservants!"

³Again they sang:

"Hallelujah!
Its smoke rises forever and ever!"

⁴The twenty-four presbyters and four living beings fell down, bowed to Godde sitting on the throne, and sang "Amen! Hallelujah!"

⁵A voice came from the throne and said:

"Praise our Godde,
all her bondservants,
those who respect her,
the small and the great!"

⁶Then I heard something like the voice of a large crowd, like the sound of roaring waters and the bang of a great thunderclap. They cried out:

"Hallelujah,
because our all-powerful Lady Godde reigns!
⁷Rejoice and be very glad,
and give the glory to her Because the lamb's wedding has come,
and his wife has prepared herself!"

⁸She was given a dress of bright, pure, fine linen, because fine linen is the justice of the holy ones.

⁹The angel said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the lamb's wedding supper!'" It continued, "These are true words of Godde."

¹⁰I fell down before its feet to bow to it, but it said to me, "Don't! I'm just a bondservant along with you and your sisters and brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Bow to Godde because Jesus' testimony is the spirit of prophecy."

¹¹Then I saw heaven open, and there was a white horse! The one sitting on it was called Trustworthy and True. In justice he judges and wages war. ¹²His eyes were like a flaming fire, and he wore many crowns on his head. He had a name written on him which no one knows but him. ¹³He wore a robe dipped in blood. His name is "The Word of Godde." ¹⁴Heaven's armies, dressed in white, pure, fine linen, followed him on white horses. ¹⁵Out of his mouth came a sharp sword with which to strike down the Gentiles. "He'll shepherd them with an iron staff." He tramples the winepress of the all-powerful Godde's furious rage. ¹⁶On his robe and on his thigh a name was written: "RULER OF RULERS, AND LORD OF LADIES AND LORDS."

¹⁷Then I saw an angel standing in the sun. It cried out in a loud voice to all the birds flying in midair. "Come!" it said. "Gather together for Godde's great supper, ¹⁸to eat the flesh of rulers, military commanders, those who are mighty, horses and their riders – the flesh of all, both free and bondservants, great and small!" ¹⁹Then I saw the monster and the earth's rulers with their armies gathered together to wage war against the one sitting on the horse and his army. ²⁰The monster was captured, together with the false prophet who had performed its signs which deceived those who had received the mark of the monster and bowed to its image. The two were thrown alive into the fiery lake burning with sulfur. ²¹The rest were killed with the sword of the one sitting on the horse, the sword which came out of his mouth. All the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

Chapter Twenty

Then I saw an angel descending from heaven with the key to the abyss and a great chain in its hand. ²It seized the dragon, that old serpent, which is the devil and the Satan, bound it for a thousand years, ³cast it into the abyss, shut it up, and sealed it in so that it couldn't deceive the Gentiles anymore until the thousand years were over. After that it must be released for a short time.

⁴Then I saw thrones. The power to judge was given to those sitting on the thrones. I also saw the souls of those who'd been beheaded because of their testimony of Jesus and Godde's message. They hadn't bowed to the monster or its image and hadn't received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. ⁵The rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were over. This is the first resurrection. ⁶Blessed and holy is the one who takes part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they'll be priests of Godde and of Christ, and will reign with him for a thousand years.

⁷And after the thousand years are over, the Satan will be released from its prison ⁸and will go out to deceive the Gentiles in the four corners of the earth – Gog and Magog – to gather them together for war. Their number was like the sand by the sea. ⁹They spread out over the earth and surrounded the camp of the holy ones and the beloved city, but Godde hurled fire from heaven and consumed them. ¹⁰The devil that deceived them was thrown into the fiery lake burning with sulfur where the monster and the false prophet were. They'll be tormented day and night forever and ever.

¹¹I saw a great white throne and the one sitting on it, from whose presence earth and heaven fled. They couldn't be found anymore. ¹²And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book, the book of life, was opened. The dead were judged by what was written in the books, according to their deeds. ¹³The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them. Everyone was judged according to their deeds. ¹⁴Then Death and Hades were thrown into the fiery lake. The fiery lake is the second death. ¹⁵If anyone's name wasn't found written in the book of life, they were thrown into the fiery lake.

Chapter Twenty-One

Then I saw “a new heaven and a new earth,” because the first heaven and the first earth were gone and there was no longer any sea. ²I saw the holy city, the New Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from Godde, prepared like a bride dressed for her husband. ³I heard a loud voice out of heaven announce:

“Look! Godde’s dwelling with people!
She’ll dwell with them
and they’ll be her people.
Godde herself will be with them as their Godde.
⁴She’ll wipe away every tear from their eyes.
There won’t be any Death or mourning, crying, or pain anymore, because the former things have gone away.”

⁵The one sitting on the throne said, “Look! I’m making all things new. Write this down,” she said, “because these words are trustworthy and true.”

⁶She said to me, “It’s done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I’ll freely give water to whomever is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. ⁷The one who overcomes will inherit these things. I’ll be their Godde and they’ll be my daughter or son. ⁸But as for those who are cowardly, untrusting, abominable, murderous, promiscuous, drug abusers, idolaters, and all those who lie, their place is in the fiery lake burning with sulfur. This is the second death.”

⁹One of the seven angels with the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came to me. “Come here,” it said. “I’ll show you the bride, the lamb’s wife.” ¹⁰It carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from Godde. ¹¹It had Godde’s glory and was lit up like a most precious stone, like a jasper, as clear as crystal. ¹²It had a great and high wall with twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates. The names of the twelve tribes of the daughters and sons of Israel were written on them. ¹³There were three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west. ¹⁴The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the twelve names of the lamb’s twelve apostles.

¹⁵The one speaking with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city, its gates, and its walls. ¹⁶The city was laid out like a square, as long as it was wide. The city measured fifteen hundred miles. Its length, width, and height were equal. ¹⁷The wall measured seventy-two yards by human measurement, which the angel was using. ¹⁸The wall was made with jasper and the city was pure gold, like pure glass. ¹⁹The foundations of the city’s wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, ²⁰the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh yellow gemstone, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth turquoise quartz, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst. ²¹The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each of the gates was made of a single pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

²²I didn’t see a temple in it, because the all-powerful Lady Godde and the lamb are its temple. ²³The city doesn’t need the sun or moon to shine on it, because the glory of Godde lights it up and the lamb is its lamp. ²⁴The Gentiles will live by its light, and the earth’s rulers will bring their glory into it. ²⁵Its gates will never be closed on any day because there won’t be any night there, ²⁶and they’ll bring the glory and the honor of the Gentiles into it. ²⁷Nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does anything outrageous or who lies, but only those whose names are written in the lamb’s book of life.

Chapter Twenty-Two

The angel showed me a river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of Godde and of the lamb ²in the middle of the street. On either side of the river was the tree of life, bearing fruit twelve times a year, once every month. The tree's leaves were for the healing of the nations. ³No longer will there be any curse. The throne of Godde and of the lamb will be in it, and her bondservants will serve her. ⁴They'll see her face-to-face and her name will be on their foreheads. ⁵There'll be no more night and they won't need the light of a lamp or the sun anymore, because the Lady Godde will be their light and they'll reign forever and ever.

⁶"These words are trustworthy and true," the angel said to me. "The Lady, the Godde of the spirits of the prophets, has sent her angel to show her bondservants what must happen soon."

⁷"Look, I'm coming soon! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of this scroll's prophecy."

⁸I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw them, I fell down to bow before the feet of the angel who had shown them to me, ⁹but it said to me, "Don't! I'm just a bondservant along with you and your sisters and brothers, the prophets, who keep the words of this scroll. Bow to Godde!"

¹⁰It said to me, "Don't seal up the words of this scroll's prophecy, because the time is near. ¹¹Whoever is unjust should continue to be unjust; whoever is vile should continue to be vile; whoever is just should continue to pursue justice; and whoever is holy should continue to be holy."

¹²"Look, I'm coming soon! I'm bringing my reward with me to repay everyone according to their deeds. ¹³I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End!"

¹⁴Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have access to the tree of life and enter the gates into the city. ¹⁵Outside are those who are dogs, drug abusers, promiscuous, murderous, idolatrous, and everyone who loves and practices deceit.

¹⁶"I, Jesus, have sent my angel to you with this testimony for the communities. I am the root and the offspring of Bathsheba and David, the bright morning star!"

¹⁷The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!"

Whoever hears should say, "Come!"

Whoever is thirsty should come.

Whoever wants to should take the water of life as a gift.

¹⁸I warn everyone who hears the words of this scroll's prophecy that if they add anything to them, Godde will add to them the plagues described in this scroll. ¹⁹And if anyone removes words from this prophecy's scroll, Godde will remove their share in the tree of life and the holy city described in this scroll.

²⁰The one who testifies to these things says, "Yes, I'm coming soon!"

Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

²¹May the grace of the Lord Jesus be with all of you.